

Stranger Safety

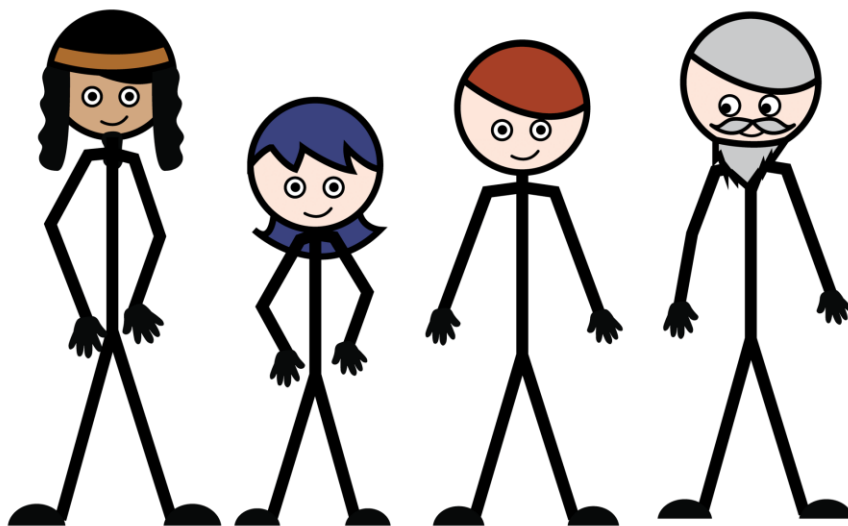

Social Story

A stranger is someone I do not know.

I see strangers everyday.
Strangers are usually safe and friendly, but some are not safe.
It is not always easy to tell who is safe.

I don't need to be afraid of strangers but I should always make smart choices around people I do not know.

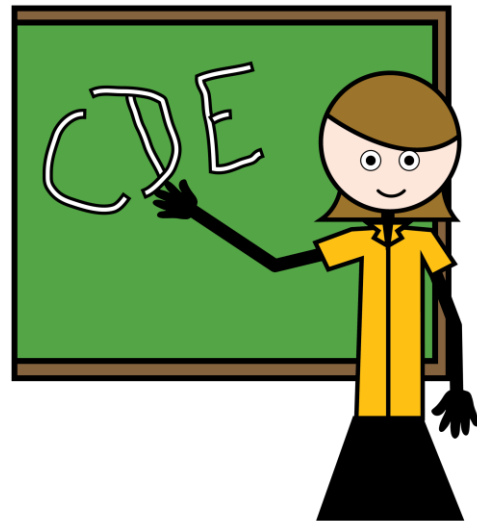

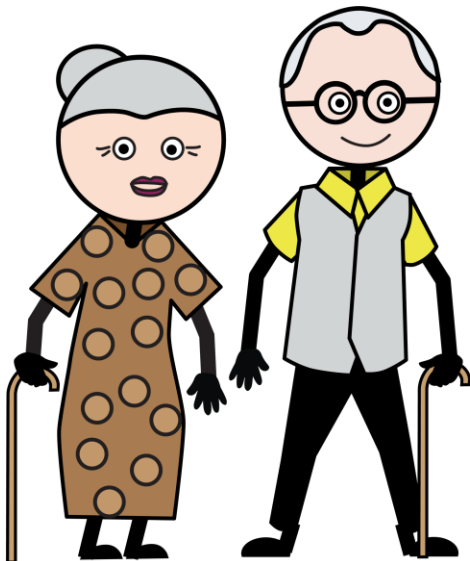

Learning some rules about strangers will help me stay safe.

It is safe to meet strangers when I am with my parents or another trusted adult.

My parent's will tell me who my trusted adults are. An example of a trusted adult might be a grandma, babysitter, uncle or teacher.

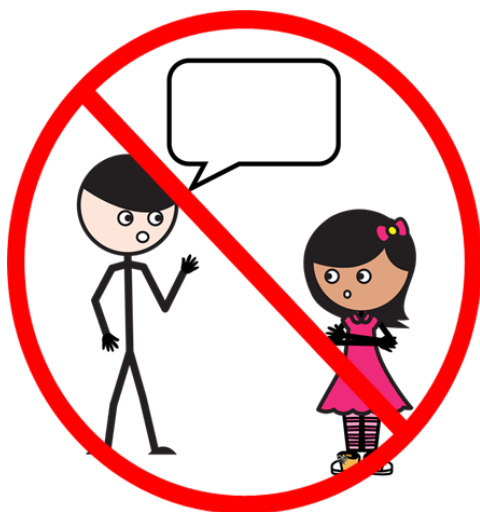

I will not talk to strangers if I am by myself.

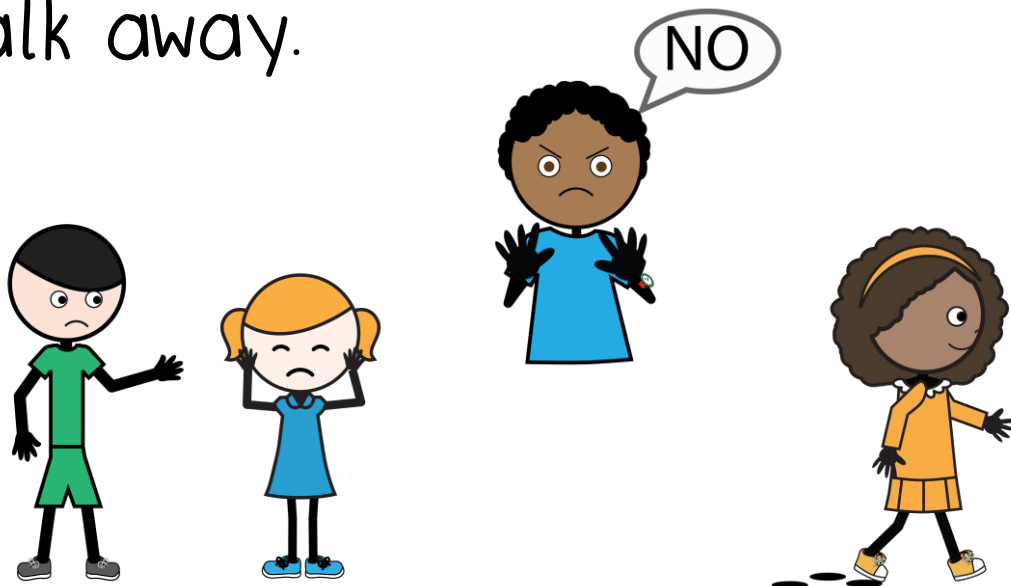

If a stranger tries to talk to me I will check with my parents or trusted adult and see if it is okay to talk to them.

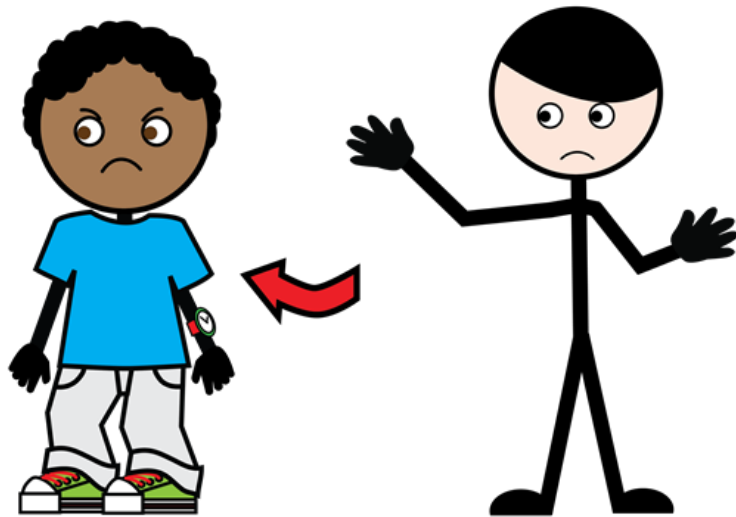

Some strangers may try to talk to me and ask me questions. I should not talk to anyone I do not know.

I can ignore them, say "no," or walk away.

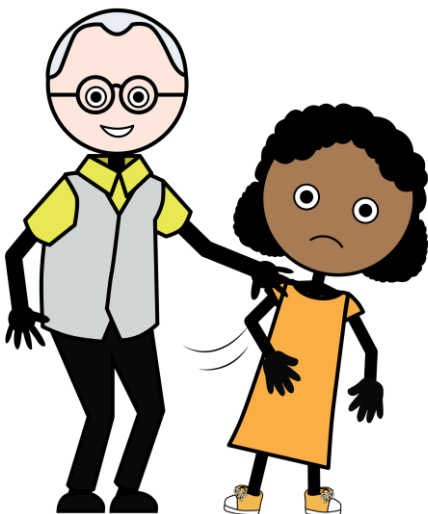

It is okay to ignore or refuse to help strangers. Strangers who really need help can ask an adult. Good people will understand that you are just keeping yourself safe.

I should never take anything that a stranger offers me. Even if they offer me something that I enjoy like candy or toys, I will not take anything from a stranger.

I will not let a stranger get close to me.

A stranger should never touch me.
If a stranger tries to touch me I can tell them "NO," run away and get a trusted adult.

I will never go anywhere with a person I do not know.

I will never go into a strangers house or car.

I will always tell a parent or trusted adult if a stranger gets too close to me or makes me feel uncomfortable.

I will stay safe around strangers!
